description of a "warzone"

you put up your barriers,
i put up mine,
but when two bodies come together
everythings on the line.

you claim to want to "hold me tight,"
but when you're gone it hurts.
"no ones gonna treat you right,"
and still for your love I yearn.

i try to leave you alone again,
yet your soldiers get me,
take me back to your camp and begin to undress me,
strip back all my thoughts and feelings
until there's nothing left

the war is over,
i surrender ,
maybe you'll stop playing the pretender.
